RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That in view of the fact that the demand for trained leadership is so great, and that the numbers at present in our denominational colleges are so small, especially in the Theological Departments, we recommend that churches encourage worthy young men to go into the ministry and support them as far as possible.

2. That we increase our educational fund for general educational purposes.

3. That we do more for Foreign Missions.

4. That each church endeavor to have a Woman's Auxiliary organized.

5. That the Association whenever possible shall aid churches within its bounds, struggling to build or help to support a minister, as a part of its Home Mission program.
weeks.

6. That in many of the churches there are those who are qualified to assist in teaching God's Word; hence during the summer the Vacation Bible School should be instituted to run from two to three

7. That because of the long faithfulness of Dr. N. F. Roberts as Clerk of this Association, and Gospel preacher and teacher at Shaw University, we give him a token of appreciation at the expense of the Association.

8. That the churches hold at least two regular preaching services per month.

PROCEEDINGS

The Wake Baptist Association assembled in its Sixty-Third Annual Session in the beautiful auditorium of the South Main Street Baptist Church, Louisburg, N. C., Wednesday morning, August 14, 1929, at 10 o'clock, with Rev. M. W. Williams, Moderator, presiding.

The devotionals were conducted by Dr. G. W. Moore and Rev. A. Horton assisted by Bro. T. B. Smith. Song No. 367 in the Baptist hymn book was lined by Bro. Smith and Dr. Moore read a part of Isaiah, chapter 35, and emphasized ably the third verse of the said chapter. Dr. C. C. Somerville of Portsmouth, Va., offered a fervent prayer as the closing number of the devotional exercises.

The Moderator presented the church pastor, Rev. Duffie Lewis, to give the address of welcome, who, in well chosen words, welcomed the delegation from three points of view: (1) Because of the Christ Spirit you bring, (2) because of the organization, (3) on account of their strength both financial and numerical.

Rev. B. F. Jordan, B.Th., pastor of the First Baptist Church, Wilson, N. C., and Vice-Moderator of the Association, responded to the message of welcome who among other things commended the pastor and entire church for their earnest efforts in making ready the commodious church for the Association and declared, that the delegates would endeavor to conduct themselves there so as to bring inspiration both to the church and community.

The annual sermon was preached by Rev. H. Y. Cheek, A.B., B.Th., pastor of the Olive Branch Baptist Church, Wake Forest, N. C. Following singing song "O For a Faith That Will Not Shrink," led by Rev. W. T. Farror, the reading of 21 verses of Saint John the fourteenth chapter, by Rev. Cheek, the able prayer offered by Bro. E. Wimberly, and the singing of, "A Charge to Keep I Have" led by Rev. W. C. Somerville, Rev. Cheek chose for a text John 14:15. His subject was "Obedience Gives Comfort." In part the speaker averred that, (1) Failure to render service withholds God's blessings, (2) keeping the commandments will ever warrant the presence of Christ, and (3) love for Christ with a pure motive is keeping the commandments and leads one ever into ways of usefulness. The message was ably delivered and comprehensive.

The Committees on Enrollment and Hours of Meeting were appointed. See Committees.

The Vice-Moderator, Rev. B. F. Jordan, took the chair and presented the Moderator, to submit his annual message. At the close of the strong and far-reaching message of the Moderator a Committee was named on Moderator's Address. See Committee. Also a Committee on Finance was named. See Committee.

Dr. C. C. Somerville, Field Representative of the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention, was introduced to the audience and made some helpful remarks concerning the work and urged the young people to hold to the Faith.

Dr. J. B. Davis and Bro. Jas. Yeargin then took an offering to the amount of $8.00.

Benediction by Rev. B. F. Jordan.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

An inspirational praise service was conducted by Rev. H. B. Cook and Rev. A. M. Wiggins who used for an opening hymn, "We Praise Thee O God" and Phil., 2d chapter for a Scripture lesson.

The following Committees were appointed: Temperance, Officers, Resolutions and Place of Next Meeting. See Committee list.

The various boards of the Association then submitted their reports: Home Mission, Adopted. See report. Foreign Mission, Rev. D. P. Lewis. Adopted. See report. Sunday School. Rev. Geo. S. Stokes. Adopted. See report.

Dr. O. S. Bullock ably discussed the programed topic, "The Aim and Purpose of the Missionary Baptist Church." In part the speaker said that, "the aim of the church is not to merely support a pastor nor deacons but to develop human beings in their relationship socially to God. The church must teach people how to love Christ and live for Him."

Some visitors were then introduced to the audience namely: Dr. J. A. Savage, President of Albion Academy; Prof. Chas. R. Frazier, Cashier Mechanics and Farmers Bank, Raleigh; Rev. McFadden, Rev. F. D. Boddie, Nashville, N. C.; Prof. G. C. Pollard and Rev. G. W. Thomas. Dr. Savage and Prof. Frazier gave some encouraging remarks to the brethren.

Rev. A. A. Morrissey and Rev. P. H. Hedgepeth called for an offering which amounted to $4.65.

Benediction by Rev. E. Wimberly.

WEDNESDAY EVENING SESSION

An interesting exercise was conducted by the Woman's Auxiliary of the church, at the opening of which song "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart" was sung and prayer was offered by Rev. Geo. S. Stokes.

Rev. C. C. Clark, following the program rendered by the Auxiliary, came before the audience to preach and chose for a text Matthew 22:42, using for a subject, "What Think Ye of Christ?" From three main points of view the subject was profoundly treated, (1) As a Teacher, (2) as a Physician, (3) what think ye of Christ as a Preacher.

Rev. C. C. Somerville, D.D., again spoke of the mission field abroad and called upon the messengers to talk missions more in their churches and more liberally give to its support.

Brothers Jas. Whitfield and P. H. Thomas of Wilson's First Baptist Church passed the plates for an offering.

Benediction was given by Rev. Clark.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

At 10:00 o'clock a representative crowd assembled in church and listened to and took part in the devotional exercises conducted by Rev. J. W. Jones and Rev. J. A. Jones, assisted by Bro. J. F. Haywood, who read the 41st Psalm followed with prayer by Bro. J. A. Jones.

Interesting echoes from the field were given by the following brethren: Jas. High, Wakefield; Rev. E. M. Saunders, Jones

Hill; Rev. N. A. Cheek, New Liberty; R. B. Mangum, Woodland Chapel; Rev. A. A. Morrissey, Oberlin; Y. K. Morton, Zebulon; Jimmy Horton, Wakefield; Jeff Jones, Jones Chapel; H. R. Snow, Springfield; Robert Haskin, Wilson; J. S. Stokes, Bailey; R. B. Raeford, St. Matthew's; Rev. A. Horton, Mt. Pleasant (Wake); O. Curtis, Elevation; L. W. Williams, Jones Hill; Rev. J. F. Haywood, West Raleigh Baptist; Rev. E. L. Crudup, Gethsemane; C. D. King, Baptist Grove; T. S. Stokes, Stokes Chapel; Henry Cook, Franklinton; and Rev. Wm. Smith, William's Grove and Mt. Zion (Cary).

Dr. N. F. Roberts came forward, presented by the Moderator, and discussed, "Church Officers Their Duties and Responsibilities." Among other things Dr. Roberts referred to the joy that was his to serve the Association 35 consecutive years as Clerk. "A church is a body of regenerated believers in Christ. The object of the church is the regeneration of the world. No race or color is known in the church."

The officers of the church are two, (1) pastor, (2) deacons mainly, declared the speaker. There are two departments, teaching and business. The preacher must know what to preach.

The deacon is a servant, the highest title Christ gave—servant. He is a steward of the Christ, the church. He must be a man of business interested in the temple welfare. "A good deacon will have the pastor's salary when church day comes, and the Association fund ready at its annual meeting," averred the man of God. At the close of the far-reaching profound and enlightening message, by that sagacious man, the congregation beautifully sang "Saviour More Than Life to Me."

Rev. N. A. Cheek, the second speaker on the topic urged the audience to give the people what they need and follow Jesus Christ. Deacons must care for the poor and make a correct report of the money in church, sounded the speaker. This message was timely and to the point.

A Committee was sugested through a motion, to draw up resolutions of appreciation to Dr. Roberts for his faithfulness in rendering service these many years.

Prof. W. C. Craver, Field Secretary of Shaw University, spoke in behalf of the $550,000 campaign that is on for the institution. In brief he referred to the founder, Dr. Tupper, outlined the work and expressed the possibility of the restoration of the departments of Medicine, Law and Business to Shaw University.

Rev. John L. Tilley, Ph.B., acting Dean of the Theological Department of Shaw University, spoke on "Religious Training in the Church." In part the subject was treated from the following standpoints: (1) Religious training the oldest educational activity of mankind, and therefore, man's impulse is to worship, (2) the universal tendency to pass the worship on to his posterity, (3) to insure the future of the group. The young divine is a conscientious, sagacious worker for the Master whose message is ever profound.

Report of Committee on Place of Next Meeting was made. See report. Adopted.

The Committee on Officers made its report, and was adopted by a standing vote 50 to 13. See report.

Benediction by Rev. Tilley.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

Praise service, beginning at 2:00 o'clock was carried on by Revs. P. H. Hedgepeth, C. C. Jones and G. A. Mial. The 24th Psalm was read as a lesson by Bro. Jones and prayer was offered by Bro. Hedgepeth.

Rev. W. C. Somerville and Dr. J. B. Davis, M.D., cleared up some points along the lines of Christian duty which were helpful to the brethren.

Dean W. S. Turner, of Shaw University, ably spoke on "Our Changing Country Life." Among other expressions the speaker noted the change which modern machinery has wrought; the moving of people to city, which he discouraged; the commendable public school system in the country and the better trained teachers and the tremendous need of better social conditions in the country life. All persons present were benefited by the able message.

Rev. C. D. Jones, of St. Matthew's Church, gave a brief history of Shaw University in its early days and asserted that one Sunday preaching per month is not enough for our churches.

The life of the late Treasurer of the Association, Dr. A. W. Pegues, and Rev. A. T. Price, also a faithful worker in the cause of Christ, were memorialized following the report of the Committee on Obituary. The congregation stood, and, with bowed heads and wills submitted to the Divine will, sang, "Shall We Meet Beyond the River" and "Nearer My God to Thee." Rev. A. A. Morrissey led a most touching prayer.

The various Committees made their reports, all of which were adopted. See reports.

Sister Thompson of the Woman's Convention of North Carolina was presented and made some remarks, also, Revs. W. L. Wilson, Louisburg, and L. W. Veal, Jacksonville, Fla.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Association made its report of finance raised for the year to the sum of $141.90. Adopted. See report.

Motion prevailed that the Moderator, Clerk and Treasurer constitute the Committe to purchase a token for Dr. Roberts in recognition of his service.

The Committee on Finance made its report. Adopted. See report.

A standing vote of thanks was extended the pastor, members and friends of the South Main Street Baptist Church, for their generosity and unstinted efforts in caring for the Association.

"God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," was heartily sung while the brethren joined hands, after which Rev. D. P. Lewis pronounced the benediction.

EXTRA SESSION

The Tenth Extra Session of the Wake Association convened with the Martin Street Baptist Church, Raleigh, N. C., Sunday morning, March 31, 1929.

An inspirational praise service which began at 10:00 o'clock, a.m., was led by Revs. A. T. Price and A. A. Morrissey. A part of Mark, chapter 16, was read for a lesson after which Rev. Morrissey also offered a fervent prayer.

The Moderator gave a brief message of thankfulness and encouragement to the brethren following which Mrs. B. E.

Barrett, President of the Woman's Auxiliary, come forth and expressed the plans of the sisters to raise a large sum of money during the year for the work.

Many brethren gave some very helpful remarks along Christian duty lines in representing their churches.

The Finance Committee consisting of the following brethren was then named: Revs. C. C. Clark, H. B. Cook, V. T. Williams, Bros. Guyon Perry, T. J. Seawell.

"The Church's Responsibility for an Efficient Ministry," was then ably set forth by Rev. Williams, the Moderator. In part the speaker said, "that a minister needs a strong personality; he must be a student of the Bible to carry God's Word; and purity of life." The message thrilled the many hearts present.

Rev. D. P. Lewis, pastor of the South Main Street Baptist Church, Louisburg, then came to the rostrum to preach. He chose for a text Acts 3:15. Subject: "The Pioneer of Life." A pioneer as outlined by the speaker has (1) "The Childlike Faith," (2) he will use the Bible in preparing sermons, (3) he will help men find God, (4) he points the way to a new life, and (5) has no favoritism.

The message was sagacious and far-reaching and followed by a touching song, "Where He Leads Me I Will Follow."

An offering of $10.05 was then taken and the benediction pronounced by Bro. Lewis.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Subsequent a delicious dinner given by Shaw University served in the dining hall, the body gathered in the University Chapel for the afternoon session. The Association was extended a hearty welcome by Dean W. S. Turner. The Shaw chorus sang harmoniously "He Reigns" led by Miss Ruby Mitchell.

Prof. W. C. Craver, Field Secretary for Shaw then spoke on "The New Shaw." In the genesis of the powerful message some facts as to the origin of Shaw, were given with special reference to Dr. Tupper its founder sixty-four years ago.

Shaw's contribution to the State and nation in the teaching profession was discussed by Dean Turner.

"Of all the schools in the State for our group, Shaw has sent out more into the teaching profession than any other, according to the State Department," averred the speaker.

Good teachers and good preachers must go hand in hand. The address was profound.

Hon. C. C. Spaulding represented the contribution of Shaw to the professional world. Our attentions were drawn to Dr. J. A. Kenny, Dr. Vincent of New York City, Dr. S. F. Hargraves of Orange, N. J., and Dr. A. M. Moore, all Shaw men. In all 448 medical doctors have gone out from the institution declared the able professional Christian man. 186 pharmacists; 54 lawyers and a host of able preachers have graduated from this institution, said the speaker in closing his interesting message.

Dr. O. S. Bullock and Rev. B. F. Jordan took an offering to the amount of $12.65.

The Shaw faculty gave an offering of $121.00.

Dr. Benjamin Brawley, head of the English Department, presented Dean Turner to introduce the members of the faculty to the Association: Mr. A. S. Putnam, Mrs. A. B. Logan, Mr. J. Newsom, Mr. R. McDaniels, Dean Rivers of women, Miss Simms, Mrs. Simms, Dr. B. Brawley, Mrs. Perry, Miss Cottrell, Miss Walter, Miss I. Hazelwood, Miss Cochran, Dean F. P. Payne of men, and Mr. W. C. Craver, all as faculty members, were introduced to the Association. Dr. Brawley made some very timely remarks and urged the rural people to produce more feed and food on their farms and not lose confidence in their young people in Shaw for they were young people of faith and bright hope.

Dr. N. F. Roberts was brought forward and made some encouraging brief remarks, which were followed by the introduction of some student visitors.

A rising vote of thanks was tended the institution for its generosity to the body.

The Finance Committee made its report. Adopted. See report.

Benediction by Dr. N. F. Roberts.

REPORT OF FOREIGN MISSION BOARD

There has never been a time when the doors of the Foreign Fields were more open, to active, aggressive, evangelistic work, and all forms of Christian endeavor than today. A pathetic Macedonian Cry for help, for the Gospel of Jesus Christ, may be heard from the mission stations of Africa and China. Men are beginning to realize as never before, that the Gospel is still the power of God unto salvation, and in it is the world's only hope.

In view of the urging need of consecrated men and women anxious to do evangelistic work; to enter into the labors of those who have worn themselves out on the Foreign Fields, and money to support those that are still active. We, therefore, recommend that this organization as far as possible answer the urging appeal of the missionaries in Africa, both financially and prayerfully.

Furthermore, we recommend that this Association, in keeping with the statement of our Lord, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature," will send to the Lott Carey Foreign Missionary Convention a liberal donation for the promotion of missions; that all pastors will preach at least one sermon during the year relative to Foreign Missions, informing their people of the different fields, the names of missionaries and their respective needs.

Respectfully submitted,

FOREIGN MISSION BOARD,

D. P. LEWIS, Chairman.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

Brother Moderator and fellow co-laborers with Christ, your Sunday School Board hereby submits the following:

In this age of material graft and professionalism entering into religion; with unrighteous forces ever endeavoring to draw humanity from the principles of God's eternal word, and being conscious of the high duty of Christians to propagate truth we, therefore, recommend:

1. That the pastor, who is the supervisor and spiritual advisor of every department of the church constantly exemplify an increased interest in the Church School by organizing and properly classifying the pupil in accordance with the ideal Sunday School.

2. In view of the appalling fact that there are two million five hundred thousand persons in the South who do not attend any Sunday School, we urgently appeal to all Christians to labor unceasingly and unflinchingly to bring all human beings to Christ through the church.

3. That the church in conference elect all officers of the Sunday School.

4. As a medium to a more prosperous Sunday School we recommend that each church provide and make available a suitable library for those seeking Truth.

5. We commend "The Teacher," edited by Dr. S. N. Vass of Nashville, Tennessee, to all Sunday School workers.

6. Wherever feasible we recommend a weekly meeting for Sunday School teachers in Bible instruction.

7. That each Sunday School in the churches of this Association take a special offering one Sunday each month during the year for Shaw University and send to Rev. M. W. Williams, Corresponding Secretary of the State Baptist Sunday School Convention, Raleigh, N. C.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. S. STOKES, Chairman.
